Darndale,
Dublin 17.

Dear Mr. O'Toole,

I refer to your letters to the Director-General, RTE and myself and both dated 8th November, 1990. My letter to you dated 7th November referred to the Broadcasting Authority Act 1960 (S.31) Order 1990 which is currently in force and advised you that RTE was explicitly obliged to comply with this Order and would do so. Any broadcast interview with you in August 1990 would not have been so broadcast by RTE if it had known at the time of that broadcast of your association with an organisation referred to in the said Order.

Yours sincerely,
