Dear [redacted]

SUMMER 1998

You contacted me in June 1998 and advised that you would contact the Ulster Hospital to make special arrangements for treatment of RUC casualties from Drumcree and other areas.

I am forwarding the attached letter from the Director of Finance, Ulster Community and Hospitals Trust and should be grateful if you would make arrangements for PANI to reimburse the Ulster Hospital.

Yours sincerely

Dear Miss Campbell

RE: SUMMER 1998

Further to your recent letter regarding the costs incurred for the recent civil disturbance, I am happy to outline them below. In communication with the RUC regarding the above we were assured that funding would be available to cover the action they instructed us to take with regard to possible RUC casualties. I would be grateful if you could confirm this.
