Arrest over pub killing

Tuesday 01 July 2008 12:28

Man arrested in connection with Loughinisland killings

Police have arrested a 45-year-old man in connection with a pub shooting 14 years ago.

Detectives investigating the 1994 Loughinisland loyalist pub killing in Northern Ireland, which left six men dead, detained the man in Maidstone, Kent on Monday night.

UVF gunmen sprayed the county Down Height`s Bar with bullets and left another five victims injured. The shooting occurred as customers watched the Republic of Ireland play Italy in the World Cup.

The attack on June 18, 1994, was carried out by gunmen armed with an AK47 and a Czech-made rifle.

The suspect has been taken to Antrim police station for questioning.

Their families had criticised the original police investigation for lack of progress.

An alleged security force agent has been linked to the gang behind the killing.
