Hamill inquiry postponed

Hamill inquiry postponed

The inquiry into the death of Portadown man Robert Hamill has been postponed.

The hearings were due to start on April 8 but have been delayed because of questions regarding the inquiry's terms of reference.

The 25-year-old died after an assault in Portadown town centre in April 1997.

His family say a police patrol did nothing to stop the assault.

11 years on. What a joke. Everybody in Portadown knows what happened that night. Bout time justice was done. R.I.P Robert.
