IMC makes call on Quinn murder

The Independent Monitoring Commission (IMC) says Irish Republican Army (IRA) members past or present were responsible for the brutal murder of south Armagh man Paul Quinn.

However, the commission, which monitors paramilitary ceasefires, said it was too early to say if the killing had been authorised by the IRA leadership.

Mr Quinn, 21, from Cullyhanna, died after being mercilessly beaten in County Monaghan last month.

Sinn Fein has denied there was republican involvement in the murder.
