Simpson to make claim over murder

The Democratic Unionist Party MP David Simpson says he plans to use Parliamentary privilege to claim that a senior member of Sinn Fein conspired in the murder of a former Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC) officer before being recruited as a police informer.

The claims centre on the murder of former RUC reservist Frederick Lutton.

The 40-year-old, who was Mr Simpson's cousin, was shot dead in Moy in County Tyrone in May 1979.
