A man has been arrested in by police investigating the murder of journalist Martin O' Hagan.

The 43-year-old was detained last night in Craigavon.

He is being questioned by police in Lurgan in connection with the intimidation of a witness and attempting to pervert the course of justice.

Martin O' Hagan, who worked for the Sunday World, was shot dead near his home in Lurgan in 2001.

Drew Robert King (40) from Warringstown, Co. Down was charged with his murder last month.
