Two due in court over loyalist feud killing

Wednesday, 21 January 2009

Two men, aged 32 and 31, are due to appear at Laganside Magistrates Court today charged with the murder of prominent UDA member Tommy English during a loyalist feud.

Both men have further been charged with hijacking and membership of a proscribed organisation.

The 32-year-old was arrested in Antrim, and the 31-year-old was arrested in Glengormley.

Another 32-year-old man, who was arrested in Antrim, last night remained in custody and continues to help police with their inquiries.
