Gardai have arrested three men this morning in connection with the investigation into the murder of south Armagh man Paul Quinn last October.

The three, who are in their 20s and 30s, were detained following a number of searches in Co Monaghan.

They are being questioned at Monaghan and Carrickmacross garda stations under section 30 of the Offences Against the State Act.

Mr Quinn, 21, was beaten to death by a gang of men after being lured to a remote farm in Co Armagh on October 20th.

The inquest into his death was opened briefly before being adjourned last month.
