THE SISTER of British soldier Mark Quinsey thanked the people of Northern Ireland for their messages of support after her brother's murder by dissident republicans.

Reading a letter she had written to her brother, 25-year-old Jaime, she said: "It breaks my heart to think that I will never see you again.

"What's happened to you is just so hard for me to understand," she added.

"You were the most caring, respectable young lad I knew. You did not deserve what those cowards did to you."
