Allister responds to Eames/Bradley comments

01 June 2008

“It is a matter of regret that Lord Eames has now moved to be judge and jury on state involvement in the past 30 years of violence. There is a very real danger that his comments will deflect from the primary cause of terror whose representatives are now in government.

“The Consultative Group on the Past would serve the cause of history better if they had kept the focus where it belongs – on Martin McGuinness and others of his ilk who fronted the terrorist campaign”.
