DUP LEADER DISCUSSES QUINN KILLING WITH PRIME MINISTER

DUP Leader Dr Ian Paisley MP, MLA has this evening spoken to the Prime Minister about the murder of Paul Quinn at the weekend and potential repercussions. Dr Paisley said afterwards:

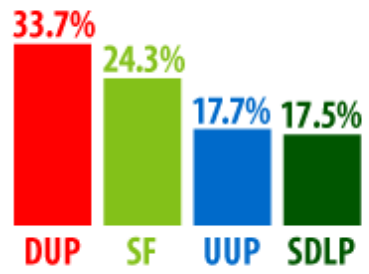

"I have pointed out the seriousness of the situation and indicated to the Prime Minister that I have been briefed by the Chief Constable. The Prime Minister now knows the claims that are being made surrounding this cruel death and the alleged involvement of the Provisional IRA. While Sinn Fein have vigorously denied any such involvement it is vital that we see the conclusions of the police investigations into this brutal murder.

If this murder was the work of the Provisional IRA then very serious consequences will flow from that. As a Party we have made it clear that there will be no place in government for those associated with murder. I encourage everyone to wait for the findings of the police, both in Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic. There will be no
