MCMENAMIN CONDEMNS BRUTAL MURDER

Back to Latest News

SDLP Strabane Councillor Eugene McMenemy has condemned those responsible for the murder of local man Andrew Burns, whose body was found across the border in Donegal this morning. Speaking today Mr McMenemy stated:

“This was a shocking and brutal murder and my thoughts are with the family of the victim at what must be a horrific time for them. Words of condemnation will mean very little to the evil people who carried out this summary execution but this despicable act of butchery has to be condemned by every right thinking person.

There can be no justification or excuse for such a callous act. Those responsible have nothing to offer the community, they have no support and their actions are morally bankrupt. The perpetrators of this act must be apprehended and charged. No one has the right to act as judge, jury and executioner in such an arbitrary manner. It is clear that anyone with any information on this crime should contact the Garda or the PSNI as soon as possible.”
