Sinn Féin seek emergency debate on O'Loan Report into Collusion

Published: 23 January, 2007

Sinn Féin Assembly group leader, John O'Dowd MLA has confirmed that Sinn Fein have tabled a motion on the Police Ombudsman Report into collusion for debate in the Assembly.

Mr O'Dowd said:

"The issue of collusion is a massive. It is one that we should be debating in the Assembly.

"Sinn Féin tabled a motion for debate yesterday and we hope that we can reach agreement at the Assembly Business committee today for a special session of the Assembly to sit this Friday to discuss this issue." ENDS
